Teaching with Primary Sources and Common Core Standards for Every Educator

This one-credit CPE online course taught in Moodle was designed to help educators (teachers, librarians, media specialist, and instructional coaches) understand the value of using primary sources from the Library of Congress online digital collections for teaching and learning. Course participation included six weekly synchronous virtual chat sessions.

Lesson plans and teaching resources developed by participating educators:

- The Founding Fathers: Champions of equality or hypocrites?

- Education of African Americans (before & after 1933) as it pertains to "Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry" by Mildred Taylor

- Teacher's Guide to Harriet Tubman

- 12th grade Miss Young Intro to Physics Prompts and Intrigue

- Investigating technology, media and culture 1890-1970 / relating it to today: the telephone

Stephanie (Stevie) Kline, M.Ed.
Technology Integrator and
Teacher Trainer
Intermediate Unit 1
klines@iu1.k12.pa.us
724-938-3241 x259

Linda Muller, M.S.
Instructional Specialist
California University of PA muller@calu.edu
724-938-6022